In the Matter of) National Republican Senatorial Committee) and Stan Huckaby, as treasurer)

MUR 3774

AGREEMENT TO EXTEND THE TIME TO INSTITUTE A CIVIL LAW ENFORCEMENT SUIT

National Republican Senatorial Committee and Stan Huckaby, as treasurer
("Respondents"), and the Office of the General Counsel of the Federal Election Commission
("OGC") agree as follows:

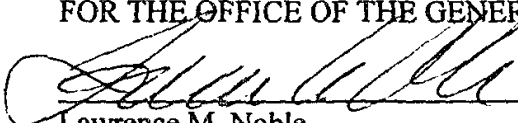

1. Respondents consent to extend the time to institute a civil law enforcement suit for a period of ninety (90) calendar days from the expiration date of the five year statute of limitations found at 28 U.S.C. § 2462, or any other statute of limitation or repose that may be applicable, should the Commission institute a civil law enforcement action against the Respondents in MUR 3774 pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(6).

2. In consideration of the above waiver, OGC will refrain from conducting any new formal discovery aimed at Respondents for a period of ninety (90) calendar days beginning December 9, 1997. This agreement does not preclude OGC from: a) seeking Commission approval of subpoenas for deposition and scheduling depositions to take place after the 90-day period, b) seeking Commission approval of subpoenas for documents/orders to submit written answers to be issued after the 90-day period, c) pursuing or conducting follow-up for any formal discovery that was initiated prior to December 9, 1997, and d) pursuing informal interviews.

3. This agreement will have no effect if the Commission does not send a proposed conciliation agreement to Respondents within 90 calendar days from December 9, 1997.

4. If the last day of any of the 90-day periods referenced in Paragraphs 1-3 above falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the 90 day period shall extend through the next business day.
